

I am very happy with Indiana's current telephone privacy law. My family is no longer bothered by unwanted sales calls. If I wish to do business with a company I will contact them.

Please do not make Indiana change this law to allow unsolicited calls to those of us who wish to be left alone.